Eighth Grade Wrestling

Coach Bredeson best summed up this year's squad, quoting "They are great in some ways, but worse in others." He felt the best part was their ability to learn quickly. But after learning, their skills were weak. He said this was due to "lack of experience".

Stu Anderson, of the eighth grade team enjoys wrestling, but added that "the practices go from easy to hard". But Gary Elliott felt it was just the opposite. When asked about their favorite part of wrestling, Todd Hunt put it simply by saying "Pinning".

Eighth Grade Gymnastics

This year's eighth grade squad consisted of 18, of what coach Mrs. Smith described as "definitely one of the most talented squads I've ever coached." After six years at Welch as a coach, she felt that not only were they talented, but that they also worked well together.

Individually, the team had favorite events. Becky Bishop stated that "the uneven bars are my favorite." Brenda Pedigo's talent was in the mats, while Laura Twambly exclaimed, "I like the balance beam." The squad seemed to have an abundance of fun with the same amount of practice.

New

Miss Quint, our new music teacher is from Winthrop, Iowa. There she spent her elementary, junior high, and senior high school years. She was involved in the high school band as a drummer.

Miss Quint was the lead singer in a private music group which traveled to England, France, Switzerland, and Austria.

This is Miss Quint's first year of teaching and she looks forward to many more.

Mrs. Carlson has been living in Ames for 16 years. Previously she spent four years teaching in Odebolt, Iowa.

She decided to teach because she enjoyed her years in school so much.

Mrs. Carlson has a good friend who has a mentally handicapped child. Her contact with that child influenced her decision to teach students with special problems. She has spent 20 years teaching in special education.

Looking back she thinks that the two years she spent in the regular classroom were not as rewarding as her present work.

Ron Heinen

Ron Heinen, who is 29 years old and formerly from Algona, Iowa, is the new art teacher at Welch.

He has been teaching at the Iowa State Design Center. His under graduate and graduate work were studied at I.S.U.

Along with his teaching duties, Mr. Heinen was the basketball coach for the eighth grade girls basketball team. He also plans to be an assistant coach for Mr. Bredeson next year for ninth grade football. Any of his free time is filled pursuing his profession of drawing and painting.

Teachers

Miss Powers

Miss Powers works with special students. She was born in Iowa but moved to Illinois only a few years later. There she taught two years of schooling. Previously she has taught three years of schooling.

She is planning to continue her teaching and later go to school at Iowa State University.

Mrs. Boyd →

Mrs. Boyd, our new gym teacher, was born in Owatonna Minnesota. Besides living in Ames for year and a half, she lived in Minneapolis and Mankato.

Mrs. Boyd enjoyed physical activities when she was young. This got her started in many sports at the junior high and senior high level.

She has been teaching for two and a half years and plans to continue in the future.

Mrs. Peterson

Mrs. Peterson, the new Spanish teacher at Welch, taught kindergarten, first and second grades in Guatemala for two years. Besides living in Guatemala, she has traveled in Mexico and Central America. She also taught the mentally handicapped at Ames High School.

Mr. Johnson's hometown is Carlisle, Iowa, where he attended elementary and high school. Then he studied Industrial Arts at Indianola for two years. While he was studying, he worked in the summer as a contractor. His contracting job is what got him interested in teaching.

He enjoys working with students and likes the job security in teaching. Mr. Johnson is hoping for a full-time position instead of his present part-time job.

This year's orchestra group wasn't very different from past years' in talent, but they seemed to enjoy it. Mr. McCoy once again led them in a year of hard work that never seemed too hard for the skillful players. In fact, the orchestra had a new sound from the years past.

Concert Mistress Mary Verhoeven said, "It's O.K., but just the same, I'm glad it's only twice a week." Another orchestra member felt this experience will help in high school orchestra, and trumpet player Tim Rood exclaimed, "It's more fun than band."

Seventh Grade Chorus

In her first year at Welch, Miss Quint has tried some new ideas in chorus. The music was at a higher level than in past years. The chorus used guitars along with the piano accompaniment, and there was more work with skills.

Miss Quint has worked with other seventh grade chorus groups, but feels this one was the most talented by far. She stated that "They have showed me ability way beyond what I had expected at the beginning of the year". She also added that they got along well and enjoyed chorus. From the way things look, the 8th and 9th grade chorus has some real talent.
